BARBARA LINHART

Honor Students

Donna Trierweiler is our Valedictorian this year. Not only a good student, Donna has been active in many school activities and was editor of the 1947 Cardinal.

Salutatorian honors go to Barbara Linhart. Barbara came to Portland High School from Sunfield in the fall of 1946. Although with the class only a year, she made a place in the group not only by her scholastic record but by her friendly and cooperative nature.

President BEVERLY HAMILTON | Vice-President BILL BRIGGS | Treasurer HELEN WOHLSCHEID | Secretary BETTY SNOW

CLASS HISTORY

Four years ago this class of '47 began their studies and activities at P. H. S. The result of our class election was: Maxine Fedewa, President; Pat Hunt, Vice-President; Betty Snow, Secretary; Helen Wohlscheid, Treasurer. Our sponsors during this year were Mr. Lee and Mr. Steube. By the end of the year we were all feeling pretty proud of ourselves.

In the fall of '45 we started our Sophomore year with an election which made Helen Wohlscheid, President; Maxine Fedewa, Vice-President; Marilyn Martin, Secretary; Tom Backhurst, Treasurer. Our Assembly Program was a real success. Miss Larson became our sponsor for the next three years.

Our Junior Class officers were: Tom Allen, President; Beverly Hamilton, Vice-President; Marilyn Martin, Secretary; Helen Wohlscheid, Treasurer. The main events were the Junior-Senior Banquet, J-Hop, and Junior Play, "Here Comes the Prince."

In the fall of '46 our class officers were: Beverly Hamilton, President; Bill Briggs, Vice-President; Betty Snow, Secretary; Helen Wohlscheid, Treasurer. The Senior Play, "Sitting Pretty", the Senior Prom, and the Year Book were our main accomplishments for this year.

Ruth Miller wills her metal heel plates to anyone not intending to return to P. H. S.

Margaret Adgate wills her easily heard voice to Martha Badder.

Tom Allen wills his athletic ability to Gene Myers.

Tom Backhurst wills his long walks to town to Hermie Schrauben who could use the exercise.

Bob Baker wills all his extra curricular activities to Johnny Stewart.

Maxine Fedewa wills the Portlight and all its responsibilities to Maggie Moran.

Bill Briggs wills his Frank Sinatra voice to Larry Braendle.

Bethyl Barrus wills her jeep to leanor Huizenga who seems to think walking to school every morning is fun.

David Bills wills his behavior in 4th hour study hall to anyone who thinks he can get away with it

Harvey Wood wills his ability to draw pictures in class to anyone who thinks he can do it.

Walt Padbury wills his green Olds to Bill Willemin to replace that little old Ford.

Earl Frits wills his Tyrone Power resemblance to Earl TenEyck.

Rose Disch wills her ability to play the bass drum to Marilyn Richards who will be taking over next year.

Donna Trierweiler wills her good grades to Vivian Buckley.

Merwin Baum wills his getting up at 6 a.m. to get his Dad off to work to Dick Hunt who doesn't get up until absolutely necessary.

Doris Barber wills her size 9 figure to Arlene Pranger.

GIFTATORY

Louis Melbourne—A bag of imported wheat in case you have a bad season.

Beverly Hamilton—A brush to keep those lovely red tints we so admire gleaming.

Doris Barber—A hair ribbon to add to your collection.

Dick Megarah—A telephone book composed of just a few of your out of town numbers.

Harold Higgins—A telescope to see all and we do mean all.

Walt Padbury—A ticket to Holland in case the Olds won't make it.

Ernest Selden—A piggy bank so you can save for the model farm of the future.

John Smith—A soda glass to remind you of your specialized art.

Dick Sandborn—A book on how to get acquainted since you've always been so bashful.

Earl Fritts—A horse, not a bad way to travel where your girl lives way out in the country.

Mona Mae Luce—A book of jokes to keep you always laughing.

David Bills—An airplane so you can fly in when Lois is snowed in way out there in the country.

Norman Herzog—A car crank in case your car decides not to start again.

Dick Smith—A new thumb, Dick, guess you deserve one after hitch-hiking four years.

Leo Spalding—A little black book so you won't forget any article of news you may happen to pick up.

Harvey Wood—Your talents are many so we concentrate on one and give you a pencil so you can draw all those pictures you were so fond of doing in Government Class.

Graydon Ward—A book on the repair of the 1951 Automobile just in case that's your next investment.

Dorothy Higgins—A piece of jewelry to remind you of the days when you went with that certain Freshman.

Helen Huhn—A rolling pin, we hear you'll be needing one soon.

Betty Hyland—A memo pad, maybe now you'll get all those stage properties from school and back to your Dad.

Pat Hunt—A purple heart, after all you've gone through a lot especially in your senior year.

Betty Snow—An extra pair of pockets for your coat in case the present ones give out from being over loaded.

Barbara Linhart—This piece of paper will give you permission to bottle all the Arizona sand you like.

Marilyn Martin—A lease on your uncle's store in case you find some spare time to go into business for yourself.

Ruth Miller—A cheerleading book with all the yells. You were a good one so the memories should be pleasant.

GIFTATORY (Continued)

Margaret Adgate—A teacher's degree so you won't have to wait four years.

Tom Allen—A camera, Tom, you certainly had a time getting pictures for the Cardinal.

Bill Briggs—A milking machine to help you to get to town a little earlier, Bill.

Tom Backhurst—Snow is a little out of season but this sled will remind you of it anyway.

Bob Baker—A razor guaranteed to do away with that five o'clock shadow.

Bethel Barrus—A play book so you can start learning the lines for your first Broadway success.

Beverly Moyer—An absence list to remind you of all those you typed when you were a Senior.

Rose Mary Schaefer—Bubble gum, we know you always made the lives of the teachers miserable by your ability to crack it.

Donna Smith—A comb so your hair won't look like "Callie" in the Senior Play.

Lois Smith—Bills, Bills, and more Bills, the more they come the better they are.

Viola Smith—Carry this pillow with you always, you can never tell when you may take a fall.

Lorrain Spitzley—A train schedule which may help you if you ever have to make out more picture schedules.

Marian VanPolen—A typing pin for 65 words, we knew that you could do it.

Harold Dennie—A new trombone which will come in handy for solos with your new band.

Cristy Fandel—A car, Cristy, don't think yours can take it much longer.

Roman Feldpausch—Boxing gloves, thanks for making our noons more fun.

Gerald Gilbert—A little motor, Gerald, see if this will make the crystal ball revolve.

Alfred Goodrich—A book with some new telephone numbers, from the papers you left lying around this year we figured that you were tired of the ones you have.

Burdette Goodwin—A tractor, with two farms to manage you'll need some help.

Maxine Fedewa—A ticket to Norway, exclusive for blondes.

Merwin Baum—A ring, just in case you ever lose that one you wear on your little finger.

Rose Marie Disch—A jeep to remind you of all the good times you used to have in yours.

Donna Trierweiler—A scholarship for those swell grades you got while in high school.

Phyllis Pline—A little pin ball to remind you of the days when you were working at the Grill.

Helen Wohlscheid—We know this sewing kit will come in handy next time you decide to make a new outfit.

PROPHECY

The class of 1947 has high hopes for the future. The members of the class all have definite fields they wish to enter. Let us see how they have made out in 1957.

Margaret Adgate is following in the footsteps of her mother and now has 26 pupils in her little red school house.

Tom Allen is now a full fledged photographer and is taking pictures for the 1957 edition of the Cardinal.

Maxine Fedewa is now Editor of the Portland Review and Observer. Guess she got her experience from the Portlight.

Bethel Barrus has just signed with MGM to do a new show, "A Pill in a Jeep."

Bob Baker is now President of the P. P. A. (Poker Players of America.)

Tom Backhurst now has a fleet of taxi cabs running from Mulliken to Portland. Always sure of a ride, uh, Tom?

Bill Briggs is now a song plugger. His latest is "Open the Door, Richard."

David Bills is repairing typewriters for the Underwood Typewriter Co. We remember when he used to pound one at P. H. S.

Beverly Hamilton is now Head Librarian at the Portland Public Library. Mrs. Reynolds finally retired.

Dorothy Higgins has just advanced to head cashier at Estill's in Lansing.

Helen Huhn is celebrating her 10th anniversary as a model housewife.

Betty Hyland is designer for the new Motion Picture Studio, Buggs Bunny, Inc.

Dick Megarah has at last found the woman of his dreams and spends his evenings at home reading the paper.

Leo Spalding finally got a partnership in the Hi-Speed Gas Station. It was a long, hard struggle, wasn't it, Leo?

Graydon Ward is really in there pitching for the Detroit Tigers now.

Harvey Wood, after a startling performance in the Senior Play, is now drawing a plan to find the exact spot where the villain should fall in a forth coming Broadway play.

Walt Padbury has replaced Van Johnson in the hearts of the American girls, freckles and all.

Donna Trierweiler is now head nurse at St. Lawrence Hospital.

Merwin Baum is now hauling gravel between Lowell and Portland. We hear he makes quite a stop off in Lowell.

Doris Barber has now started her own roadside lunch especially for truck drivers.

Pat Hunt is now modeling for those ads "It's more fun to be a mother than a model" in the Woman's Home Companion.

Betty Snow is still traveling around this big world. Every once in awhile we get a post card from her. (Remember when Portland used to bore her?)

Barbara Linhart is now President of Arizona University. Quite a big job for such a little girl.

PROPHECY (Continued)

Marilyn Martin has settled in Ionia with her one and only from Saranac. Memories?

Donna Smith is an understudy for Bette Davis after a great performance in the Senior play.

Lois Smith spends her spare time in her counting house counting all the little Bills.

Viola Smith, the new manager of Pierce's Grill, is still trying to put up those signs saying the pin ball machine is out of order but it still doesn't do any good.

Lorrain Spitzley now has full permission to open the vaults at the bank without an escort.

Marian VanPolen is the new assistant manager of the J & J Store and is working for her next promotion.

Helen Wolhscheid is head hair dresser at Warner Bros. Her latest victim is Cass Daley.

Harold Dennie has finally caused Tommy Dorsey to retire. Guess Tommy was no match for Peanut.

Cristy Fandel is now head of the stock show at the Ionia Free Fair.

Roman Feldpausch has just won acclaim as the heavy weight champion of the boxing world.

Gerald Gilbert is this year head speaker at the F. F. A. Convention at Kansas City.

Alfred Goodrich is head of the sales department of the Goodrich Tire Co.

Burdette Goodwin spends quiet evenings at home still trying to catch up on some of those Good Housekeeping magazines that Joyce got when she was a Senior.

Norman Herzog has just left for Norway as the "Blonde Swoon Boy of 1957."

Ernest Seldon is now foreman of the stock room at Fisher Body.

Dick Smith now has the world's largest fleet of lumber trucks under his supervision.

Beverly Moyer is chief cook and bottle washer in the best little drive-in Eagle, Clinton County, Michigan, ever had.

Harold Higgins is still competing with Alger and Pete for you know who.

John Smith has just issued a book on the "Finer Arts of Frying Hamburgs."

Earl Fritts is now a standin for Tyrone Power in his latest picture, "L'Mour on a Desert Island."

Rose Disch has taken over the advice to the Lovelorn column in the Portland Review.

Mona Mae Luce is superintendent of all Michigan Baptist Sunday Schools.

Ruth Miller is Sunfield's social leader as the wife of Mayor Erdman.

Rose Mary Schaefer is manager of Portland's new 1½ story Department Store.

Phyllis Pline has now established her own beauty salon in Portland.

Louis Melbourne is now a real estate agent, but handles only farms.

Dick Sandborn is driving a school bus for good old P. H. S.

JAUNTY JUNIORS

The third year in High School is a year of great activity for any class. This year's Junior class was no exception. Several dances, the Junior play, the Prom, and the Junior-Senior banquet rounded out a busy year.

A new system of class government was inaugurated with the election of a council consisting of 20 persons to act as a steering committee.

Officers:

President.....Jim McCormack
Vice President.....Fred Huizenga
Secretary.....Mary Ann Fox
Treasurer.....Carolyn Smith

THE EAGER EIGHTH

The people of the eighth grade stand on the threshhold of High School. This year they have come in contact with this life by constant association with High School activities. One of the important events of the year was the organization of an eighth grade basketball team. These boys look like good material for future P. H. S. Their officers were:

Officers:

President ..... Catherine TenEyck

Vice President ..... Ronald Lehman

Secretary ..... Gordon Seal

Treasurer ..... Nancy Green

First row: M. Davies, L. Price, R. Fernholz, C. Morgridge, J. Hunt, G. Kinney, A. Sumner, J. Evans, B. VanPolen, A. Baker

STEADY SEVENTH

News to the upstairs family this year, the seventh graders did a fine job of adjusting to life run by bells and without benefit of recess. Here, too, athletics proved very popular with both girls and boys.

Officers:

President ..... Carol Traynick

Vice President ..... Joan Hunt

Secretary ..... Alice Baker

Treasurer ..... Janet Evans

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year our Student Council, under the guidance of Miss Wilcox, became a member of the National Association of Student Councils.

The outstanding contribution of this group to the growth of our school was bringing the constitution up-to-date, thus assuring a more democratic form of nominating and electing class representatives and Student Council officers. This changed constitution also makes possible a larger and more representative membership through the addition of representatives from the various school organizations.

The Student Council participated in many activities for the betterment of the school.

The council sponsored presenting honor awards to students outstanding in scholarship, citizenship, and school activities at our Honor Assembly in May.

Learning to Do

Doing to Learn

In October 1946, Richard Babbit and Gerald Gilbert were sent to the F. F. A. National Convention at Kansas City. This trip proved very interesting and highly worthwhile to the two delegates.

On November 13, the annual F. F. A. fair was held at the High School. Livestock was exhibited for the first time at a local fair.

FOOTBALL

The Red Raiders under the direction of Coach Pernert enjoyed a successful season, winning 6, tieing 1, and losing 2. The team played four conference games in the newly formed Tri-C League and finished in second place, losing only to Bellevue. At the end of the season Tom Allen was elected honorary captain and was later named in the all conference team with Don Oliphant. Norm Herzog, Fred Lowery and Leo Spalding were given honorable mention.

BASKETBALL

The 46-47 basketball squad brought to P. H. S. one of the best seasons in several years, 13 wins, against 2 losses in regular season play.

The Raiders won nine straight conference games to clinch the Tri-C League Championship. Norm Herzog and Bob Baker were placed on the League's All-Star first team. Fred Lowery, Jim Nowak, and Dick Arnold made the League's second team. The squad was also honored by having the League elect Herzog as the All-Stars' Captain.

The team went to Lansing Eastern for the state district tournaments. They defeated Lansing Resurrection 31 to 27 the first night and lost to St. Mary's 37 to 23 the following night. Bob Baker was elected honorary captain of the squad at the end of the season.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club was formed in the fall of 1946. Starting from scratch the members drew up a constitution for the Club and also a set of rules regarding the wearing of school sweaters.

The Club is composed of boys who have earned a first team letter. The Athletic coaches act as advisors. Although the Club has not been very active during the last year, the boys are looking forward to a very busy year.

A Picture will tell
Your Story, more completely with more detail, and more accurately than words.
We offer a complete service from your Idea to an Ideal printing Plate in line or Half-tone, of one or more colors.

A quarter century in the manufacturing of Photo-Engravings has made us a leader in the production of fine letter press plates for black and white or color printing.
